New College Uniform Provider

We are delighted to advise that Noone will be taking over as official uniform supplier to the Catherine McAuley College community from Wednesday 9 October. The uniform will be available for purchase at Noone's new retail store, conveniently located at 21 Queen Street, Bendigo.

Noone have had a long and successful relationship with Boltons who recently made the decision to return to their core business of corporate, business, workwear apparel and office supplies.

Established in 1947, Noone currently supplies products to over 1350 schools nationally and have over 190 schools under retail management. Their retail school communities are serviced through 10 dedicated retail stores and over 50 on-campus uniform stores.

Noone specialise in personalised and professional customer service and we are confident Noone will be able to affect a seamless transition of supply to the College community.

The Noone staff look forward to welcoming you instore.
