

Subject Teacher: Biology, Science, VET Animal Studies (Fixed Term, part-time 0.88FTE)

We are seeking applications for an enthusiastic, innovative and engaging teacher professional to join our College! This is a part-time (0.88 FTE) fixed term position commencing 2 September until 14 November 2024 and involves teaching secondary Biology, Science and Animal Studies. The successful candidate will engage effective teaching strategies to cater to a diverse range of students needs and abilities and promote a positive classroom that nurtures curiosity and the love of learning. You will join a dedicated and professional team with a strong focus on delivering curriculum-aligned content and achieving quality teaching and learning outcomes.

Benefits of joining Catherine McAuley College:

- A culture of continuous professional improvement
- Access to a growing range of modern and state-of-the art equipment and facilities in a spacious learning environment.
- Generous professional development opportunities
- Be part of an exciting and positively evolving education community.

What you will bring to the team

To be successful in this role, you will bring relevant qualifications and contemporary teaching experience in line with the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers and be in any of the career stages of Graduate, Proficient, Highly Accomplished or Lead Teacher.

Subject teachers are skilled practitioners, who meet the professional standards for teachers as outlined by the Australian Institute for Teaching and School Leaderships (AITSL). Subject teachers are required to draw on their practice from the AITSL dimensions of professional knowledge, professional practice and professional engagement.

As a Senior Biology, General Science and VET Animal Studies teacher you will have:

- Strong literacy, numeracy and digital literacy practices plus a clear understanding of the Australian Curriculum.
- Relevant qualifications and experience in teaching Science and Animal Studies (desired but not essential) subjects.
- A dynamic and innovative classroom teacher who will have an adventurous and creative approach to engage your students and utilise STEAM resources to maximise learning potential and outcomes.
- Exceptional interpersonal skills, with a unique ability to engage positively with students, encourage respectful relationships and contribute to a productive learning environment.
- A professional and collaborative approach to your work.

- An innate desire for continuous learning and professional improvement that includes classroom-based learning, mentoring, and coaching.
- Commitment to child safety.
- Proven organisational skills.
- Commitment to the Catholic Educational philosophy of the College.
